

Acting for Animation

Week 3

M I M E

- Mime is a form of acting and drama where the actor uses his body and gestures and also facial expressions rather than words to express his role.
- Drama started before the Greek times, it was created as a form of entertainment for the local people.
 - In the past, Greeks would hold a festival to celebrate their god Dionysus.
 - She was the god of wine, fertility and celebration.
 - During these festivals, Greeks would entertain the public by holding drama based performances on either comedy or tragedy.

- Mime artists are called mimics, they exaggerate every move they make so it defines what they are trying to show.
 - A mimic is an actor that acts without words and their entire performance is based on their non verbal gesture and bodily movements.
- Mime artists usually act a story through their body, there have been many famous mime artists through the years.
