

SEVEN ESSENTIAL ACTING CONCEPTS
Team Work Sheet

Name
Character
Objective
Conflict
Thinking tends to lead to conclusions; emotions tends to lead to action
Acting is reacting. Acting is doing.
Scenes begin in the middle, not at the beginning.

Theatrical Reality is not the same thing as regular reality.
Character should play an action until something happens to make him play a different action.
A scene is a negotiation.
Audience empathies with emotion.
